CENTER FOR GLOBAL POLITICS

TESTIMONIALS

"I chose EES because of the diversity of its modules, which were different from the purely cultural aspects of Eastern Europe often studied in similar master programs. The modules were career-valuable, as well as current. The experience was a challenging but ultimately rewarding one. The study weeks in Berlin were fantastic fun, hard work and where I made lifelong friends from around the globe. I would highly recommend studying EES at Freie Universität Berlin. Don't let the two years put you off, they absolutely fly by!"
Heidi Gordon

"EES offers a great opportunity for those who want to combine their professional and academic life. It is a truly inspiring program broadening your horizon. Moreover, you get to know many wonderful people, make new friends and engage in very interesting debates throughout the two years of studies. I can highly recommend it to everybody interested in the region and who wants to try out an alternative to the classical master study possibilities available on the market."
Orsolya Sofalvi
